Provenance: In the fall of 2011 I requested all documents filed with the Minnesota Secretary of State and this is what they sent. Apparently the SoS keeps only a copy of the Articles of Incorporation on file. A Microsoft Word version of this document is available in the association file cabinet, which is in the possession of the president of the association. -- J.W. Lampi

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF

SPRING LAKE PARK OFFICE CONDOMINIUMS ASSOCIATION

We, the undersigned, being of full age, for the purpose of organizing a nonprofit corporation under the Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation Act, being Minnesota Statutes Chapter 317A, do hereby adopt, sign and acknowledge the following Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE 1

The name of this corporation is SPRING LAKE PARK OFFICE CONDOMINIUMS ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE 2

This corporation is formed for the purpose of constituting and acting as the association of unit owners within the meaning of the Minnesota Common Interest Ownership Act (the "Act"), Minnesota Statutes Chapter 515B, for SPRING LAKE PARK OFFICE CONDOMINIUMS, a common interest community to be duly constituted under said common interest ownership act upon certain land located in the City of Spring Park, Anoka County, Minnesota. Such purposes shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

A. To maintain, manage and administer the affairs, the real estate and other property of SPRING LAKE PARK OFFICE CONDOMINIUMS ASSOCIATION.

B. To levy and collect assessments from the members and to use the proceeds thereof for the purposes of the planned unit community.

C. To carry insurance pertinent to the ownership, use and maintenance of the common interest community, as well as on any personalty of the corporation, exclusive of any coverage for contents and personal effects belonging to any of the members; to collect all premiums and charges for same from the members; and to use, reimburse or expand the proceeds for the rebuilding, repair, renovation, rehabilitation and/or replacement of any loss or damage to any of the above property as provided in the Bylaws;

D. To contract for and employ persons, firms or corporations to assist in the management, operation, maintenance and administration of said common interest community.

E. To make and enforce reasonable regulations concerning the use and enjoyment of said common interest community.

F. To own, maintain and improve and to buy, sell, convey, assign, mortgage or lease real and personal property and to borrow money or issue evidences of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all of the within objects, and to secure the same by mortgages, pledge or other lien, subject to the limitations set forth in the Declaration for the common interest community. G. In general, to enter into any kind of activity, to make and perform any contract and to exercise all powers necessary, incidental or convenient to the administration, management, maintenance, repair, replacement and operation of said common interest community and to the accomplishment of any of the purposes thereof.

H. To do anything required of or permitted to it as administrator of said common interest community or as the association of unit owners by the Minnesota Common Interest Ownership Act and further laws amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, and by the Declaration for SPRING LAKE PARK OFFICE CONDOMINIUMS, Common Interest Community, as filed and amended from time to time.

I To exercise such other powers which are consistent with the foregoing purposes and which are afforded to the corporation by the Minnesota Nonprofit Corporation Act and any further laws amendatory thereof and supplementary thereto.

J. To act as a "Condominium management association" within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

ARTICLE 3 NO PECUNIARY GAIN

The corporation is organized as a nonprofit corporation. The corporation shall in no way, directly or indirectly incidentally or otherwise, afford pecuniary gain to any of its members, directors or officers, nor shall any part of the net earnings of the corporation in any way inure to the private benefit of any such member, director or officer of the corporation, or to any private shareholder or individual within the meaning of Section 528(c)(1)(D) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the corporation shall be authorized to make reasonable allowance and payment for actual expenditures incurred or services rendered for or on behalf of the corporation.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or of attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office, nor shall the corporation engage in any transaction or carry on other activity not permitted to be carried on by a common interest community management association exempt from federal income tax under Section 528 of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

ARTICLE 4 DURATION

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual.

2
